Description:

Ripe Sanguine de Savoie peaches tantalize the nose, making this wine no lesser than its big brother »303«.

Floral aromas underlined by hints of yellow stone fruits. The palate is an explosion of exotic fruits, concentrated yet not overpowering. An exciting interplay of fruitiness and acidity. A luscious wine both succulent and rich.

Serving suggestion:

8°C, the perfect accompaniment to an ample cheese platter, but also pairs beautifully with duck liver pâté, or to be enjoyed as a substitute to dessert.
